

Halloween Mummy Wrap Game

Quick host guide and pregame safety checklist

Suggested house format

Teams: 2-4 players | Active round: 90 seconds to 2 minutes

Supplies: Equal paper rolls, timer, score sheet, pen, cleanup bag

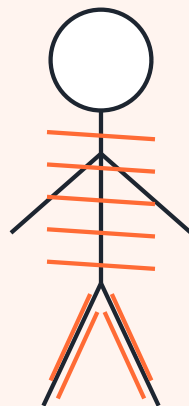

Host Steps

1. Clear each team station and keep it brightly lit.
2. Give every team the same amount of paper.
3. Ask for one willing mummy per team; never assign the role.
4. Demonstrate loose wrapping below the shoulders.
5. Start one fixed 90-second or two-minute round.
6. Stop, complete the safety check, and score each team.
7. Tear away all paper before any mummy moves.

Pregame Safety Checklist

- ☐ Every mummy freely agrees to the role.
- ☐ The floor is clear of cords, bags, furniture, and scraps.
- ☐ Candles and open flames are removed; lighting stays bright.
- ☐ Face, neck, hands, and feet will stay uncovered.
- ☐ Arms stay comfortable; legs remain separate.
- ☐ No tape, string, plastic wrap, pins, or staples touch a player.
- ☐ Everyone knows the stop signal and the paper-removal rule.
- ☐ Seated, cardboard, timer, judge, and scorekeeper roles are available.

FACE + NECK CLEAR

LEGS SEPARATE

Planning suggestions, not universal official rules. Stop immediately if a participant is uncomfortable.

Mummy Wrap Judging Sheet

Complete the safety gate first; then award up to 10 points per team.

Safety gate - every team must meet all four conditions before scoring

Face and neck clear | Hands and feet visible | Paper loose | Legs separate
